

Medical Camp Report

(1) Camp No.: – 14 Dated: - 04.01.2014

(2) DETAIL OF VENUE: -

Village - Sangrampur, Taluka - Ramgarh, District: Ramgarh, State-Jharkhand
Sanch- Gola, Anchal - Ramgarh, Bhag - Ranchi, Sambhag – Jharkhand.

(3) HIGHLIGHTS:-

The village Sangrampur was so named because of its importance in freedom struggle of 1857. At that time Gola was the place where the British had a large store of explosives for artillery. The contingent of liberation forces stayed at a village nearby. When British Army invaded the village the liberators fled and the village was named Sarka. Later everybody came to know that britishers are coming so the place was named Hullu meaning in local language to run. The battle was fought at Sangrampur which means place of battle. Last village of the area of battle was named Murudih meaning the border. Thus the area is closely related to the first freedom struggle of India.

(4) INAUGURATION: -

The camp was inaugurated by the Mukhiya of the village Sri Amrit Kumar Krisna along with Dr. DC Ram, president AFI, Ramgarh, Dr. Jamuar, his wife and Sri Santosh ji, Vyavastha pramukh AFI by lighting lamp before Maa Saraswati. It was followed by Gaytri Mantra and Saraswati Vandana by the children of the Ekal Vidyalaya.

(5) PRESENTATION TO PARTICIPANT:-

The speech of awareness was delivered by Dr. D.C Ram. He welcomed the villagers by pronouncing 'Johar'. Then he advised all of them to send their children, specially the girls to school for education. Nobody knows that empowered by education which boy or girl will become doctor, engineer, teacher or a leader. He said that he was the only boy in his district to qualify for medical education in his times. Later he retired as director health of Bihar. He inspired the people not only to be educated but to be healthy too by taking balanced diet, specially the green leafy vegetables with sours. It will protect them from the killer disease Anaemia. He pronounced a proverb that if wealth is gone, nothing is lost if health is gone, something is lost and if character is gone everything is lost.
